

“We are forever grateful for your investment in St. Paul’s Episcopal School’s Athletic Facilities. Your continued commitment is vital to the success of St. Paul’s in everything we do.”—Gerry Strang

Twenty years ago, with the help of parents and other supporters, the E.E. Delaney Foundation spear-headed the effort to build an athletic field, track, and stadium for St. Paul’s Episcopal School students. Since that time, 200 visitor seats and more than 500 additional home seats have been added to the stadium. In addition, a dedicated field house honoring long-time coach, Jim Tate, now houses the cross country and track programs.

These “growing pains” are the direct result of the increasing number of talented students, inspiring coaches and outstanding athletic programs. The 8’x 17’ one room structure hardly accommodated the officials, announcers, clock keepers, sound producers, camera crews, home and visiting coaches, not to mention radio and television broadcasters.

Once again, support from the E.E. Delaney Foundation spear-headed the effort to replace the existing Press Box with a much larger and more efficient one. The new 82’ x 14’ building has six rooms and provides the mechanical functions needed to accurately and effectively broadcast activities in the stadium. Continuing founder E.E. Delaney’s vision for St. Paul’s, the athletic facilities available for students and visitors are second to none.

Other long-time St. Paul’s supporters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bickert also significantly contributed to building the Press Box. Previously, the Bickert’s made a significant gift to SPS to build the girls’ softball field. These gifts ensure that all of our student athletes train and compete in facilities that enable them to achieve their greatest potential.

Many businesses and individuals also contributed towards the building of the new Press Box. Those who made exceptional contributions of time, talent and materials include: Ogden Construction, Sharon and Mike Mosley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Stimpson, Jr., Scotch Gulf Lumber, and Tunstall Inge.

St. Paul’s is forever grateful to these donors and looks forward to many more years of successful local, regional and national athletic competitions, Special Olympics, and Veterans Day Ceremonies held in these outstanding athletic facilities. Go Saints!

Robert H. Rutledge Athletic Complex Memorial

Many thanks to the Committee to Honor Bob Rutledge for their remarkable contributions to and fundraising for the Athletic Complex Memorial. It will be a lasting and fitting tribute to Coach Bob that the Saints, as they march into the stadium on game nights, will pass under and through Bob's Archway.
